

MALWA CENTRAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION FOR WOMEN, LUDHIANA

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY

Session 2025-26

Vision

Service into humanity and spread the message of “Kirat karo, Naam Japo, Vandh chako”.

OBJECTIVES

1. To encourage students to understand the essence of different religions and promote interfaith harmony.
2. To develop moral and spiritual values through discussions, prayers, and value-based activities.
3. To nurture tolerance, empathy, and respect for all faiths and beliefs.
4. To organize lectures, devotional gatherings, and festivals that inspire ethical living and inner peace.
5. To help students integrate spiritual principles into daily life for holistic development.

Composition of Religious Society

The Religious Society of Malwa Central College of Education for Women, Ludhiana functions on simple and democratic principles. It aims to involve both faculty and students in promoting moral and spiritual values. The society consists of four members, including two faculty members and two student representatives.

The student members are nominated every year from those who actively participate in religious, moral, and cultural activities of the college. The faculty members guide and coordinate all the programs, ensuring that the activities reflect the values of peace, harmony, and ethical living.

The composition of the Society is simple and based on democratic principles. It consists of four members, out of which two are nominated every year from students who actively participate in religious, moral, and cultural activities of the college. The members of the Governing Body for the session 2024–25 are:

Sr. No.	Name	Designation
1.	Dr. Tripta	Patron
2.	Mr. Amarjit Singh	Teacher
3.	Amritpal Kaur (119)	President
4.	Muskan Kaur (116)	Secretary

Teacher Incharge

Principal